CABARET DINNER DANCE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Many Richmond People Attend Last Large Function Before Beginning of Lent.

MISS REED AT THE MARDI GRAS

Mrs. Alfred L. Gray Entertains at Tea in Honor of Mrs. Percy Brown and Mrs. H. K. Pancoast-Tearoom at Jefferson Closed To-Day.

A brilliant throng of Richmond people filled the Country Club of Virginia last evening for the big cabaret dinon of the winter was concluded. Ash Wednesday will put an end to the larger society functions, and the dinner dance last evening was a fitting close to a most interesting season. The clubbouse was decorated in shaded lights and garlands of spring flowers and the tables were arranged in the corridors, as well as the main hall and dining-room of the cinb. Dancers and singers from New York and Boston rendered a charming program and sev-Mrs. Preston Belvin, Mr. and Mrs. James Branch, Colonel and Mrs. B. O. James, P. B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Julien H. To Give Play Friday.

"The Magistrate," a three-act comedy, by Pinero, is to be staged on Friday evening by the Richmond College Dramatic Club, in the college auditorium at Westhampton. Some weeks ago this club produced a clever comedy by Rernard Shaw. "You Never Can Tell," which met with a very great success, and the enthusiasm over this effort will be responsible for a successful production of this new play. The performance will be under the direction of the students and faculty of Richmond and Westhampton. Colleges. Miss Brown of Richmond, has charge of the rehearsals, which are being carried on with much diligence every afternoon and evening at the college. Good progress has been made under her training, and the prospects are promising for a wortly performance. The show will and the prospects are promising for a worthy performance. The show will
